May 27, 2015

Dear Annenberg Student:

Welcome to USC Annenberg! As you plan for your first academic year here, we want to let you know about unique resources that will greatly enhance your learning experience.

1. As part of our Annenberg Technology Memorandum, you are required to have a PC or Apple laptop for personal use throughout your academic career in and out of the classroom.

2. The Annenberg Access (Technology) Fee provides you with access to a breadth of services, from software, including Adobe Creative Cloud, to workshops, certifications, and free printing.

3. Visit the Digital Lounge website for additional information on Adobe Creative Cloud access, the Laptop Policy and other resources at USC Annenberg.

4. For additional information on USC Annenberg, download the Annenberg Mobile application on your handheld device.

As part of our school-wide 21st Century Literacies Initiative, we believe these developments will provide a breadth of opportunities that will be unique to you as a USC Annenberg student.

Fight on,

Gordon Stables

Gordon Stables, Ph.D.
Assistant Dean for Student Affairs

James Vasquez

James Vasquez
Associate Dean, Information Technology and Facilities Operations